Project Design Phase-I
Solution Architecture

Date	11 October 2022
Team ID	PNT2022TMID32076
Project Name	Personal Expense Tracker

Type your text

Solution Architecture:

Solution architecture is a complex process – with many sub-processes – that bridges the gap between business problems and technology solutions. Its goals are to:

Find the best tech solution to solve existing business problems.

Describe the structure, characteristics, behavior, and other aspects of the software to project stakeholders.

Define features, development phases, and solution requirements.

Provide specifications according to which the solution is defined, managed, and delivered.

Example - Solution Architecture Diagram:

CUSTOMER

utterance response

CLIENT USER INTERFACE

SERVICE INSTANCE

Built-in integrations

ASSISTANT

Search skill

Dialog skill

Webhook

Custom integrations

OTHER SERVICES

Process input

information

Process response

Watson Discovery

Web service

Tone analyzer

Speech to text

Text to speech

Business processes

Plus or premium plan only feature

Watson Assistant component